

AEA/NEA Reserve Membership

An Invitation to Reserve Your Membership

The Arizona Education Association knows life situations can occur without warning and are often unplanned. That's why we offer Reserve Membership for members needing to take leave from their employment and wanting to maintain a relationship with the Association and job protection rights.

You are an important part of a total team effort that goes into providing a high-quality education to the students in our public schools. Even though you are on leave, your voice needs to be heard. Association membership – local, state, and national – represents a chance to do more collectively to improve our public education system and our profession than we could ever do alone.

AEA consists of public school and higher education employees and is the statewide leader in education reform efforts, professional development opportunities, and other endeavors that advance the cause of public education and public school employees.

What does Reserve Membership entitle you to?

- Keep many of your AEA and NEA member benefits while you are on leave, including discounts on car and health insurance, discounts on car and homeowners insurance, travel expenses, financial and investment services, and more.
- Continuous eligibility in the NEA Complimentary Life Insurance and other insurance benefits, including health, and long-term care.
- Stay informed of issues important to your profession through Association publications, including the AEA Advocate, NEA Today, electronic publications, and access to the members-only section of the AEA website at www.arizonaaea.org.

AEA and NEA annual dues for Reserve Membership are only $253.00 for certified and $131.50 for ESP.

You can either write a check to AEA, use the credit card option, or use Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT).

Membership is only open to those who agree to subscribe to the goals and objectives of the Association and to abide by its Constitution and Bylaws.

The Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 has eliminated the individual federal income tax deduction for lobbying expenses paid or incurred as part of membership dues on or after December 31, 1993. Dues payments are not deductible as charitable contributions for income tax purposes. Dues payments (or a portion) may be deductible as a miscellaneous itemized deduction. Those members will not be able to deduct as union dues 2 percent of their AEA dues. This is a percentage attributable to lobbying expenses on the state and national level. The exact dollar amount will vary depending on each member's category of membership.

With full knowledge of the above, I hereby authorize to pay for my membership dues as revised annually in the method of payment selected provided that I may revoke this authorization as of Sept. 1 of any year by giving written notice to that effect on or before that date. Your membership will be automatically renewed each year and the appropriate dues charged beginning in Sept. of each membership year.

This authorization is to remain in full force until BANK has received notification from me of its termination in such time and in such manner as to afford BANK a reasonable opportunity to act on it. A customer has the right to stop payment of a debit entry by notification to BANK prior to charging account. After account has been charged, a customer has the right to have the amount of the erroneous debit immediately credited to his/her account by BANK up to fifteen (15) days following issuance of statement of account or forty-five (45) days after the charge, whichever occurs first.

Any rejected credit card or EFT payment will result in that amount being added to your next scheduled deduction amount. Your regular scheduled deduction amount will resume the following deduction date.
