AN INVITATION TO SUBSTITUTES

The Arizona Education Association knows the services of substitutes are vital. When school employees are ill, dealing with a family crisis, attending a professional meeting, or absent for any reason, they can enjoy peace of mind knowing that because of substitutes like you, services to students go uninterrupted.

Substitutes are an important part of a total team effort that goes into providing a high-quality education to the students in our public schools. Even though you are not working full-time, your voice needs to be heard. Association membership – local, state, and national – represents a chance to do more collectively to improve our public education system and our profession than we could ever do alone.

AEA consists of public school and higher education employees and is the statewide leader in education reform efforts, professional development opportunities, and other endeavors that advance the cause of public education and public school employees.
