Amber Gould

FOR AEA TREASURER

Elect Amber for...

Powerful Schools

To ensure every student has a quality public education, we need educators making the decisions for their schools and community.

- High School English and Student Council Teacher
- National Board Certified Teacher
- Arizona Association of Student Councils Board Member
- Educators Rising - Arizona Board Member
- Arizona Superintendent Teacher Advisory Council
- Arizona Student Council Advisor of the Year 2020

Powerful Locals

Locals must be recognized as key stakeholders in their district and community. Local association leaders need to be informed and have the resources needed to advocate for their students and profession.

- Local President during RedforEd and the pandemic
- District Health, Safety, and Re-Opening Task Force
- District Advisory Committee Chair
- Professional Negotiations
- Legislative District Vice-Chair

Powerful Voice

Educators feel empowered to truly advocate for our students and our profession when we use our collective voice. When we work together, we strengthen our schools while growing the strength of our union.

- NEA Director for Arizona
- NEA Program and Budget Committee
- NEA Membership Organizing Committee Chair
- NEA Young Professionals Caucus Vice-Chair and founding member
- NEA Student Advisory Committee
- Education International World Congress 2019 Delegate
- AEA Regional Director
- AEA Finance and Revenue Committee
- AEA Red For Ed Task Force
- AEA Social Justice Task Force chair
- AEA eSWAG - Early Career Educator group

As an educator, union leader, and advocate I know we need powerful locals where members are always at the table and have the support needed to build and advocate for a strong present and future. My budgetary experience as a local, state, and national leader will keep AEA in a powerful position to continue our amazing work!

2022 DELEGATE ASSEMBLY

VOTE

ANGELA PHILPOT

FOR AEA Vice President

1 EXPERIENCE

Angela has been a wall-to-wall local president in rural Apache Junction, an AEA regional director for the East Valley, a chair of four different AEA committees, a state officer during a historic walkout and worldwide pandemic, and the lead state treasurer trainer for NEA. She has over 20 years of AEA leadership experience.

2 EDUCATION

Angela has her Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education and her Master of Arts degree in ESL, Multicultural, and Equity Education. She has her elementary, secondary, adult education Arizona teaching licenses with endorsements in K-12 ESL and early childhood education. She has been a classified, certified, and supervisory employee in Arizona's public schools and has taught at each grade level K-12+.

3 ETHICS

Angela has led the finance and revenue committee, the audit committee, and has been one of two AEA members serving on the AEA/AEASO bargaining team for the past six years. She has also served on the AEA Executive Director Search Committee four times. Angela is well-respected and trusted statewide and nationally.

About Mrs. Angela Philpot

Angela is a native Arizonan from the small, rural mining town of Globe-Miami. She attended fully-funded Arizona public schools preschool through high school. She is from a family of union members: miners, electricians, and boilermakers. She was the first in her family to go to college and received a full academic scholarship to a Hispanic Serving Institution (HSI) for her B.A. degree and a teaching scholarship for her M.A. degree.

Angela has been married to her husband, Brian for 22 years. They have three children: Mason is in 11th grade and their twin daughters, McKenna and Morgan, are in 8th grade. Their children attend Gilbert Public Schools where Angela currently teaches 6th grade English Language Arts.
